Key Takeaways from the K-12 Teacher Academy Survey

471 students who attend a K-12 teacher academy pathway in Delaware completed a survey. Key takeaways are presented below.

For a full summary of the results, see CRESP technical report T20-004.2.

Prepared by the University of Delaware Center for Research in Education & Social Policy (CRESP)

Overall Survey Response Rate

471 students responded to the survey.

⊈ = 1 student.

Students' Career Plans

K-12 teaching academy students were asked several questions to gather information on their future career plans.

Overall results are presented below.

K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans 409 students (87%) said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after graduation. 173 students (37%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education.  149 students who plan to teach (32%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware. 120 students who plan to teach (25%) said they definitely or probably were 111111111111111111111111111 willing to teach in their district. Note: All percents are out of the total 471 respondents.

The subsequent pages present students' career plans broken out by race, ethnicity, gender, current grade, and grade the student plans to teach.

Key Takeaways from the K-12 Teacher Academy Survey

Students' Career Plans by Race

K-12 Teacher Academy Students by Race. 292 students (62% of respondents) identified as White/Caucasian. 11111111111111111111111111 11111111111111111111111111 114 students (24% of respondents) 1111111111111111111111111 identified as Black/African American. 1111111111111111111111111 89 students (19% of respondents) 1111111111111111111 identified as another race. 11111111111111111111 Note: Students may have identified as multiple race/ethnicities K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (White/Caucasian Students) 266 White/Caucasian students (91%) said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after ______ graduation. 117 White/Caucasian students (40%) said they definitely or probably plan 11111111111111111111111111 to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education. 1111111111111111111111111 1111111111111111111111 93 White/Caucasian students who 111111111111111111111 plan to teach (32%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware. 111111111111111111111 80 White/Caucasian students who 11111111111111111 plan to teach (27%) said they 11111111111111111 definitely or probably were willing to teach in their district. 11111111111111111 292 White/Caucasian respondents unless noted otherwise K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (Black/African American Students) 101 Black/African American students 1111111111111111111111 (89%) said they definitely or 1111111111111111111111 probably plan to attend college after 1111111111111111111111 graduation. 1111111111111111111111 30 Black/African American students  111111 (26%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching 111111 certificate or major in education. 34 Black/African American students 1111111 who plan to teach (30%) said they 111111 definitely or probably were willing to 111111 teach in Delaware. 19 Black/African American students

Center for Research in Education & Social Policy

Ψ)ELAWARÊ

who plan to teach (17%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in their district. Note: Students may have identified as multiple race/ethnicities. Percents are out of the total

Page 2

Students' Career Plans by Ethnicity

K-12 Teacher Academy Students by Ethnicity

Note: Students identified as Hispanic/Latino ethnicity in addition to a race.

K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (Hispanic/Latinx Students)

```
111111111111111
    67 Hispanic/Latinx students
                                       111111111111111
    (87%) said they definitely or 11111111111111
probably plan to attend college after graduation.
                                       11111111111111
  31 Hispanic/Latinx students (40%)
 said they definitely or probably plan 111111
  to obtain a teaching certificate or 111111
          major in education.
                                       111111
31 Hispanic/Latinx students who plan
to teach (40%) said they definitely or 111111
  probably were willing to teach in 111111
              Delaware.
26 Hispanic/Latinx students who plan *******
 to teach (34%) said they definitely or
probably were willing to teach in their
                district.
Note: Students identified as Hispanic/Latinx ethnicity in addition to a race.
Percents are out of the total 77 Hispanic/Latinx respondents unless noted otherwise
```

Students' Career Plans by Gender

K-12 Teacher Academy Students by Gender

75 students (16% of respondents) identified as male. 355 students (75% of respondents) identified as female.
K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (Male Students)
61 male students (81%) said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after graduation.	11111111111 11111111111 11111111111 1111
28 male students (37%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education.	111111 111111 111111 111111
24 male students who plan to teach (32%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware.	11111 11111 11111 11111
21 male students who plan to teach (28%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in their district.	1111 1111 1111 1111
Note: Percents are out of the total 75 male respondents unless noted otherw	se.
	K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (Female Students)
324 female students (91%) said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after graduation.
133 female students (37%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education.
117 female students who plan to teach (33%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware.	11111111111111111111111111111111111111
95 female students who plan to teach (27%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in their district.

Page 4

Students' Career Plans by Current Grade

K-12 Teacher Academy Students by Current Grade

•	220 students (47% of respondents) were in 9th or 10th grade.241 students (51% of respondents) were in 11th or 12th grade.
	K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (9th - 10th Grade Students)
	198 9-10 grade students (90%) said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after graduation.
	72 9-10 grade students (33%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education.	11111111111111111111111111111111111111
	58 9-10 grade students who plan to teach (26%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware.	11111111111111111111111111111111111111
	46 9-10 grade students who plan to teach (21%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in their district.	111111111 111111111 111111111 11111111
	Note: Percents are out of the total 220 9-10 grade respondents unless noted otherwise.

K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (11th - 12th Grade Students)

211 11-12 grade students (88%) said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after graduation.
101 11-12 grade students (42%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education.
91 11-12 grade students who plan to teach (38%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware.
74 11-12 grade students who plan to teach (31%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in their district.	11111111111111111111111111111111111111
	attend college after graduation. 101 11-12 grade students (42%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education. 91 11-12 grade students who plan to teach (38%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware. 74 11-12 grade students who plan to teach (31%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in their

Note: Percents are out of the total 241 11-12 grade respondents unless noted otherwi

Key Takeaways from the K-12 Teacher Academy Survey

Students' Career Plans by Grade the Student Plans to Teach

K-12 Teacher Academy Students by Grade the Student Plans to Teach 241 students (51% of respondents) plan to teach at the Pre-K, K, or Elementary level. 1111111111111111111111111 148 students (31% of respondents) 11111111111111111111111111 plan to teach at the Middle or High 1111111111111111111111111 school level. 1111111111111111111111111 66 students (14% of respondents) plan to teach at another level or were 111111111111111111111111111 unsure of their plans. Note: Students may have indicated that they plan to teach more K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (Students who Plan to Teach at the Pre-K, K, or Elementary Level) 218 students who plan to teach these  levels (90%)said they definitely or probably plan to attend college after graduation. 118 students who plan to teach 111111111111111111111111111 111111111111111111111111111 these levels* (49%) said they definitely or probably plan to obtain a teaching certificate or major in education. 103 students who plan to teach these 1111111111111111111111111 levels (43%) said they definitely or probably were willing to teach in Delaware. 111111111111111111111111 79 students who plan to teach these levels (33%) said they definitely or 111111111111111111 probably were willing to teach in their district. 1111111111111111 Note: Students may have indicated that they plan to teach more than one level. Percents are out of the 241 respondents who plan to teach at this level unless noted otherwise K-12 Teacher Academy Students' Career Plans (Students who Plan to Teach at the Middle or High School Level) 137 students who plan to teach these 111111111111111111111111111111111 levels (93%)said they definitely or  probably plan to attend college after 1111111111111111111111111111111 graduation. 1111111111111111111111111111111 levels (52%) said they definitely or 1111111111111111 probably plan to obtain a teaching 1111111111111111 certificate or major in education. 67 students who plan to teach these 111111111111111 levels (45%) said they definitely or 1111111111111 probably were willing to teach in 1111111111111 Delaware. 11111111111111 65 students who plan to teach these

Note: Students may have indicated that they plan to teach more than one level. Percents are out of the 148 respondents who plan to teach at this level unless noted otherwise

probably were willing to teach in their levels (44%) said they definitely or

district.

Center for Research in

Education & Social Policy

1111111111111

11111111111111

Page 6